

PLAY

HARNESS THE POWER OF GAMES FOR YOUR CLASSROOM

TeacherQuest is a FREE professional development program for teachers interested in integrating games and game-like learning into their practice.

The program includes an intensive in-person Summer Institute from June 16-20, complemented by a series of project-based design challenges throughout the year.

Experience welcome but not required!

Interested in knowing more?

Sign up for one of our April informational workshops: bit.ly/TQinfo

April 8th, 4 - 5:30 pm

April 9th, 9 - 10:30 am

April 9th, 2 - 3:30 pm

During this workshop, you will get a preview of TeacherQuest and learn how games and game-like learning can help you think like a designer, increase student engagement, and re-imagine what teaching can be.

To be held at the Allegheny Intermediate Unit in the transformED space.

Email Megan Cicconi at megan.cicconi@aiu3.net for more information.

Open to middle school teachers in Allegheny County

Participants will receive ACT 48 Professional Development credits.

TeacherQuest is created and facilitated by Institute of Play (NYC) in partnership with the AIU and the generous support of the Grable Foundation.